

Photo: Dan Toulgoet

THE VANCOUVER WEEKEND EDITION

courier

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 2011 THE VANCOUVER COURIER A35

Adding to their many accolades Bob and Lily Lee were cited with VGH and UBC Hospital Foundation's Leadership Award at the Night of a Thousand Stars.

Peter Mansbridge and Monika Deol anchored the B.C. Cancer Foundation's Moroccan-themed Inspiration Gala, which saw $1.5 million raised.

Canada Top Chef Dale MacKay's creation of B.C. spot prawns with pork Thai broth and bok choy earned a silver medal at Gold Medal Plates benefit.

Fred UNLEASHED

Million + baby: Peter Armstrong's Rocky Mountaineer train station was transformed into a magnificent far-away destination for one of Vancouver society's biggest nights. Four hundred well-heeled, well-dressed guests filed into the party-perfect venue for the B.C. Cancer Foundation's signature Inspiration Gala. Former MuchMusic VJ Monika Deol and CBC's Peter Mansbridge anchored the glamorous affair that saw a whopping $1.5 million raised.

Starry Night: Community builders Robert and Lily Lee were recognized for their philanthropic and volunteer efforts at VGH and UBC Hospital Foundation's Night of a Thousand Stars. The couple who led a community health center, which bears their names, organization's Leadership Award, reported $900,000 in the middle of gala festival Shore Scroptimist's Treasure of a group of female do-gooders has a date for local charities. Yours or fronted the 11th annual society Club, this year benefiting the re and Schizophrenia Society. in on CBC Radio's The Early y@hotmail.com; follow Fred on fredabouttown.blogspot.com.

Inspired by their daughter Jessica and others with type 1 diabetes, David and Marlene Wilson rocked out at a Backstage Lounge benefit.

Sarah McLachlan's School of Music has a permanent home thanks to the generous support of Wolverson Foundation's Dona and Lisa Wolverson.

s proceeds benefitted the David Wood, pictured here

Gloria Macarenko overcame a bout of hawksworthcommunications to emcee A Night of a Thousand Stars with colleague S

Fred Unleashed - November 11, 2011

BY FRED, VANCOUVER COURIER NOVEMBER 11, 2011

Sarah McLachlan's School of Music has a permanent home thanks to the generous support of Wolverton Foundation's Dona and Lisa Wolverton.